Lila (Anna Fischer) meets Chriz (Kostja Ullmann), a very beautiful boy. Chriz falls in love with Lila and she loves him. After a trip to the USA Lila doesn't know that all girls in Germany love the band “Berlin Mitte”, especially Chriz, the singer. When she recognizes that he is the singer all things change and become different. There are always photographers around her and the manager of Chriz isn't happy too, because Chriz has to sing and there is no time for Lila, he always says that groupies do not stay for breakfast. Now Chriz has to go to another country and Lila wants to stay with him. So they have to decide...

The movie is very funny and there are lots of good songs most of them are from A-HA! The author's name is Marc Rothemund. It's a love story especially for teenagers. There is a happy end, Chriz doesn't sing a lot and he hangs out with Lila.
