Identity thief

The slightly plump woman Diana steals people's identities, to have a rich lifestyle. She uses the people's credit cards to buy, what she wants. She tries to do it with the man Sandy Bigelow Patterson, too, who lives with his family in another city. But Sandy Patterson finds out, that Diana has stolen his identity and his money, so he must catch her to stop this horror, but alone, because the police cannot help him. This movie is directed by Seth Gordon the main actors are Melissa McCartney and Jason Bateman. The movie is suitable for families. It's a cinema experience, in which you do not forget to laugh.